GENERAL EDUCATION (J) DEPARTMENT

G.O(P)No. 99/11/G.Edn Thiruvananthapuram, Dated: 30/04/2011

Read:- (1) Representation dated: 10/08/09 from General Secretary, K.S.T.A.
(2) D.O. Letter No. S.S (1)/2009/DPI dated: 07/01/09 of DPI.
(3) Letter No. H (2)/ 3546/2010/DPI dated: 11/03/2010 of DPI.
(4) Judgment dated: 26/03/2010 of Hon'ble High Court in WP © No. 1688/2010 filed by Deseeya Adhyapaka Parishath

ORDER

1. The Kerala Education Act provides for the better organization and development of education institutions in the State. It applies to aided schools, recognized schools and Government schools even established before the commencement of the Act also. Aided Higher Secondary Schools and Vocational Higher Secondary Schools have also been brought under the purview of the Act.

2. Chapter XIV C of the KER framed in exercise of the powers conferred under Section 36 of the Act refers to Conduct Rules for the teachers coming under the Act. Rule 51 of Chapter XIV C of KER refers to the conditions for recognition of association of teachers coming under KER.

3. There are separate associations of teachers of Government Schools in the LP School Sector, UP School Sector, High School Sector, Higher Secondary School Sector and Vocational Higher Secondary Sector. Teachers coming under the purview of Government Schools are governed by the Conduct Rules for Government Servants. The forming of Associations and conditions of their functioning are as applicable to Government servants.

4. There are innumerable Associations of Teachers belonging to various categories both in the Aided Sector and Government Sector. This has most often caused grave and complex administrative hurdles in resolving the genuine and common issues of various categories of teachers.

5. Government intends to interact and discuss all the general academic and administrative issues affecting all teachers as well as specific issues of specific categories of teachers. It would be a cumbersome process for Government to discuss all and each issue with the innumerable number of Associations now functioning in the State. With the purpose of rendering speedy redressal of all issues affecting teachers of all categories and sectors (LP, UP, HS, HSS, VHSS) both in the aided and Government schools, Government intend to recognize and interact only with those association/ associations representing the entire teaching community as a single group.

6. Meanwhile the Hon'ble High Court in its judgment dated: 26/03/2010 in WP © No. 1688/2010 filed by Deseeya Adhyapaka Parishath directed Government to take up and complete the process of conducting referendum within six months from the date of receipt of a certified copy of that judgment. The Hon'ble High Court also grants extension of time limit for the compliance of above order.

7. To identify representatives of such teaching communities, and to ascertain the membership strength of teachers belonging to various categories in the teachers' association Government hereby accorded sanction to conduct a referendum. The representative group satisfying the norms of referendum will be recognized as an association with which Government would hereafter discuss all / specific issues affecting by the teaching community. Thus the judgment of Hon'ble High Court read as fourth paper above complied accordingly.

8. Government also approve the scheme appended this Government Order. The Referendum shall be conducted in accordance with the scheme.
